General Information

Course Description
Reviews conventions of grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure in order to help students edit their papers more effectively and to write in a clearer style.

Attendance
Class attendance, punctuality, and participation are important elements in improving your skills in grammar and writing. Class attendance is mandatory. If you miss more than three class meetings before the semester’s midpoint or more than two class meetings after the semester’s midpoint, your standing in this class will be jeopardized.

Daily Grades
Daily assignments will count toward your final grade. These assignments include quizzes and other in and out-of-class activities.

Online Interface
Some of our class activities (such as submission of essays) will occur via UGA’s ELC at https://uga.view.usg.edu/

Course Grading
Short writing activities (SWA): 10% (100 points)
Quizzes: 10% (100 points)
Homework (HW): 20% (200 points)
Tests: 40% (400 points)
Final Examination: 20% (200 points)
Grade Scale: A = 920 to 1000 points; A- = 890 to 919 points; B+ = 870 to 889 points; B = 820 to 869 points; B- = 790 to 819 points; C+ = 770 to 789 points; C = 720 to 769 points; C- = 690 to 719 points ; D = 600 to 689 points; F = fewer than 600 points.
No late work, quizzes, or exams will be accepted. No electronic submissions for projects required on paper will be accepted.

Academic Honesty
As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University’s academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: https://ovpi.uga.edu/academic-honesty/academic-honesty-policy. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.

Electronic Devices
Turn of all electronic devices, such as cellular telephones, laptop computers, tablets, and personal stereos before you enter the classroom.

Special Needs
Students with special needs are invited and encouraged to discuss them with the instructor.
The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.

Be mindful of in-class housekeeping matters, so you can stay up-to-date.
