Academic Honesty
As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University’s academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: https://ovpi.uga.edu/academic-honesty/academic-honesty-policy. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.

Electronic Devices
Disable and conceal all electronic devices, such as cellular telephones, laptop computers, tablets, and personal stereos BEFORE you enter the classroom. Use of such items in the classroom before or during class will not be allowed or tolerated. Specific rules about the use of laptop computers for research activities will be made clear in class.

Special Needs
Students with special needs are invited and encouraged to discuss them with the instructor.
The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.

Be mindful of in-class housekeeping matters, so you can stay up-to-date.
